VERSION 6.4

ESX Server

Economy Server

In the community meeting, it was released that we will be introducing an economy server for official members only. The server is still under development and we are unsure when the patrol date will be at this time. Updates will follow and we thank you for the patience.

Unique Roleplays

Decrease in Unique roleplays

Recently in the server, the scenarios chosen by civilians have been repetitive and dull. This makes roleplay boring for officers and this needs to change. We need unique ideas from all civilians.
